Why Do Churches have vigil candles?

Most Churches have stands of vigil candles that parishners can light to accompany a prayer. Why do Churches have these Candles, and what do they signify?

Throughout Church history, candles have always had symbolic meaning. Scripture is filled with references to light and holy fire. In John 1, Christ is called the "light of men," and in John 8:12, Jesus says "I am the light of the world."

Many churches, shrines, and chapels have designated areas next to sacred statues or images with small candles that you can light. Depending on the candles and their setting, these candles may continue burning for a few hours or even up to a week. Churches often ask that you leave a small donation to cover the cost of the candle.

When you light one of these candles, you can offer a prayer or intention along with it. You can pray for a special request, for loved ones, those who are sick or suffering, or simply to thank God for His blessing.

In the How To Book of Catholic Devotion, Mike Aquilino and Regis J. Flaherty explain that, "The lit Candle symbolizes your prayer. The candle then keeps vigil in the Church or shrine when you cannot physically be present."

Vigil candles are also beautiful because seeing our candles and our offertory prayers being offered with those of our brothers and sisters in Christ reminds us that we are never truly alone. Together, all of our small prayers form a great flame.

So, let us light the candles in our church and continue our great Tradition of our Catholic Faith.
